

GET GEARED UP FOR GAME DAY WITH ONE EASY CLICK

THE OFFICIAL RETAIL STORES OF THE ATLANTA FALCONS

Search:

Site/Web enhanced by

Yellow Pages

PeachBuzz

ADVERTISEMENT

What's on this page?

The entry titled "Indigo Girls, Eddie's Attic still a hot team," and any of the comments about it.

Archives

- Book says bin Laden had crush on Whitney Houston
- How Rivers got in on red carpet's ground floor
- Sugarland can't call itself a trio anymore
- Atlantan Knight wins again on 'Project Runway'
- It's all in the details for 'Turned Funny' cast, crew
- Chris Tucker slows down for stand-up
- More archives...

Send a Buzz item!

Latest AP entertainment headlines

▪

Access Atlanta > Blog > Archives > 2006 > August > 03 > Entry

Indigo Girls, Eddie's Attic still a hot team

By RICHARD L. ELDREDGE | Thursday, August 3, 2006, 03:06 AM

The Atlanta Journal-Constitution

More than 20 years after he first booked them at Trakside Tavern, the Indigo Girls and Eddie's Attic namesake Eddie Owen are staging a homecoming at the Decatur live music venue.

On Wednesday, when tickets for Amy Ray and Emily Saliers' Aug. 31 and Sept. 1 benefit gigs at Eddie's Attic went on sale at noon, all 360 of them were snapped up in 18 minutes.

"They went fast," Owen told Buzz. Just over a year ago, Owen returned to the business he sold in 2002 to become the Attic's director of operations. The Indigo Girls are set to return to the CD racks Sept. 19 with their Hollywood Records debut, "Despite Our Differences."

"I've gotten a sample of it and it's gonna be good," Owen said of the disc.

The Aug. 31 show will be a medical benefit for recovering Nashville singer-songwriter Janet McLaughlin, "a dear buddy of ours." McLaughlin is tentatively scheduled to attend and perhaps even perform in some capacity.

The Sept. 1 show will benefit The Georgia Network to End Sexual Assault.

Saliers, meanwhile, recently celebrated the success of the duo's summer tour with dinner at Dick and Harry's in Roswell with friends and partners from her Decatur eatery, Watershed. We're told that Saliers and company enjoyed chef